Also present: Council Liaison Diane Raab and City Manager Dan Sabolsky
Visitor: Sharon Lange

Approval of Minutes:

Motion to approve minutes from the Jan. 3, 2022 meeting by Keith Knecht, seconded by Mali Thomas. Motion passed.

Commissioners:

Winifred Riddle will be approved at the City Council meeting, 3/8/22.

A motion was made by Mallory, seconded by Hebert, for Wendy Fleming and Kay Forster to be decommissioned from HRC. They will be the first ones selected to be on the Study Group. Motion passed.

A motion was made by Mallory, seconded by Knecht, to add Winnie Riddle to HRC starting at the April meeting. Motion passed.

Update to Ordinance Revisions:

The ordinance will go to Stephen Lindsey, City Attorney for review. Our CLG application has been accepted by SHPO pending the revision of the City of Cheboygan Historic Resources Ordinance, and the submission of resumes for current commissioners.

Boyne City CLG Update:

Contact person has not returned any phone calls made by Mallory. Raab will follow up.

Cheboygan County Economic Development goals:

Sharon Lange introduced herself and gave us her history and involvement with the City of Cheboygan. As the Economic Services Development Coordinator she presented the County Commission's goal to support local businesses, to provide resources and help in writing grants, to collaborate, cooperate, and communicate with other units of government entities.

Public Comments: None

Board Comments:

Hebert presented a brochure for the Michigan Historic Preservation Network (MHPN) conference in Holly, MI, on April 11-14, 2022. This is a grassroots organization. Hebert is planning to attend and mentioned the possibility of ride sharing for one day.
