

Historic Resources Commission Meeting Minutes—7/5/22, City Hall

Mission Statement: The mission of the Historic District Commission is to recognize, educate, and bring public attention to the historic treasures in the city and to assist property owners in the recognition and official designation of their historic properties.

Meeting was called to order at 6:18 p.m. by Chairman Katie Mallory.

Commissioners present:

Winnie Riddle
Mary Hebert
Katie Mallory
Mary Brown
Laurie Musclow
Mali Thomas

Absent:

Sherry Nelson
RJ Archambo
City Manager: Dan Sabolsky

Also present: City Council Liaison Diane Raab

Visitor: Sue Patrick

Approval of Minutes:

Motion to approve minutes from the May 2, 2022 meeting by Hebert, seconded by Riddle. Motion passed.

Update to Ordinance Revisions:

A slightly revised draft was distributed to commissioners. The draft is still at the city attorney's office for review. Hebert took time to explain what CLG is (Certified Local Government).

Commission status: We have a full docket of board members. Sherry Nelson will no longer serve as a commissioner, but will be chair of the Study Committee. Mallory mentioned the need to have a conversation with Archambeau about the importance of his being present at meetings.

Public Comments: Sue Patrick was introduced. She expressed her interest in joining the commission.

Commissioner Comments:

Commissioner Riddle brought up the idea of inviting local realtors to one of our meetings and engaging them in how they can present historic although dilapidated properties to potential owners and what resources could be available to them.

Thomas passed out packets of information gleaned at the MSU course on effective board meetings and governance.

Next Meeting: August 1, 2022 6:15 p.m. City Hall

Meeting was adjourned at 7:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Mali Thomas
